Accept Cash.

to Ask Discarded Wife

to Return Home.

Panis, March 6 .- Near the little Britge of Saint Glen there lives a ogenes, a man by the name of Eugene Poldevin, who has lived for alnost three years in a portable wardrobe oitter cold of winter nor the rain or much less the increase of rents, snow, much less the increase of rents, this man has passed three years of what be calls "exquisite peace" in his improvised mansion. He was formerly the owner of the land which he now occupies, but misfortune forced him to sell it. The new proprietor accorded him the privilege of remaining on the land as a "locataire." But is Poldevin really a modern Diogenes? His predecessor lived in a barrel and abandoned all carthly goods except his stan, his sack and a drinking cup. Diogenes, history tells, saw a child one day drinking out of its hand. "That," he said, "teaches me that I have still some." aches me that I have still someand threw it away. Poldevin not only has a drinking cup, but an entire kitchen outis. He cooks his own meals This "Tub" Has a Door.

of Diogenes had nothing to entrance, while Poldevin has one of the doors of his ward-njoys the effect of a real por-instances force him to do so. He has a a return to days of better fortune.

a French reporter went to see at his "home" he found him readweek old newspapers, good litera-course. From the edge of his "por-ere hung icicles, which caused this dern style, to remark that he new Diogenes was the rein-"presents" in the form of oney. Instead of shouting, ceted the money eagerly, comes from Munich that that city e best place for unfaithful hus-settle down with their affinities. nsurance inspector who had a great a insurance inspector who had a great of travelling to do met on one of voyages an actress who appealed so gily to him that he took her back to ich and installed her in a house gside his own. His wife heard of this after reproaching her husband in ac terms left him and went to her her in Landshut. Nothing could have de his own. His wife heard of this fire reproaching her husband in terms left him and went to her in Landshut. Nothing could have the inspector better and to the astonishment and horror of the in which he lived his affinity next door just as soon as the wife city.

Criticism of the works of the advanced wing a first terms of the advanced wing a first terms.

President went to visit Marhis native city, and one day when wandering through the streets is he loved to do, he saw a sentiis, as he loved to do, he saw a s in front of the Montaux barracks. try box, was enjoying a huge piece bread and gruyere cheese. The Presieached and began my friend, is the regiment y dost thou ask?" returned the oying the familiar second interests me considerably,"

"You want to make believe you are the Minister of War," returned the sentry more astonished than ever.
"I am more than the Minister," replied M Thiers blandly.

You can't be any one but Papa Here, take the bread and cheese Thile I present arms to you."

The Mercury Lamp.

The problem of lighting Paris streets, touses and buildings has undergone many marges in the last century. Without going back as far as the day of the candle may be said that the oil lamp, the assiene lamp, gas, electricity and the descury lamp have succeeded each other have succeeded each other latter lamp has been so perfected entirely different from the one oduced. But this march of progchanges. The Ministry of the in the Rue Cambaceres is a huge building lighted by 400 oil lamps.

A MODERN DIOGENES | Andre Salmon Sings the Praises of "Independant" Painters in Paris

His Residence Is Like That of Poet Makes Valiant Defence of So-Called Artists, Many of Them Americans. Who Are Outcasts

AFFINITIES UNWELCOME it has not yet secured a permanent home. Munich Women Force Husband to the Grand Palais in the Champs Ely-

Special Correspondence to TRE SUN.

Paris, March 5.—Although the Salon des Independants is in its thirtieth year it has not yet secured a permanent home. Temporary sheds are erected each year to house the exhibition, which presumably is considered too frivilous to be admitted to the Grand Palais in the Champs Elysees, where the old and new salons will open later—and where the Autumn Salon will also be held.

This year the sheds for this exposition have been built on a corner of the Champ de Mars, a site once covered by the sund sulcides. And we therefore look kindly upon most advanced investigations as well as feverish realizations. We can excuse such impatience.

"Painting has hithereto been ten years behind literature but now has caught up with it and made an alliance with an aeroplane.

SAYS REMORSE MADE

TOLSTOY FLEE FAMILY

Thinks He Was Conscience Stricken.

ing Revoked Document Giving Estate to Wife.

(Hungarian). Galerie des Maclunes, in which the old

Cubist sculpture, by J. Csaky

IS THE SKIBO LAIRD

Want to Know Status of Carnegie.

Page 18. March 5.—A curious controversy has arisen as the result of the announcement that the "Lique des Gourands." It sincerely trust that I will not be misunderstood by the great and noble of whether Andrew Carnegie is a British subject or an American citizen has arisen as the result of the standard of dainy food, will celebrate on April 2 the 20th anniversary of Denis Papin, again in a curious manner. The faculty of Alberdon University proposed that Mr. The announcement is made in this month's issue of the Carnet d Epicare, the month's issue of the Carnet d Epicare, the month's issue of the Carnet d Epicare, the month's issue of the "Lique des Gourands," the world "announcement is made in the safety of the university to succeed the late Lord Stratheona. The proposal went along swimmingly until the student body in sisted on knowing whether Mr. Carnegie was an American citizen or a British subject to the university to succeed the late Lord Stratheona. The proposal went along swimmingly until the student body in which it is set forth that Denis satisfied on knowing whether Mr. Carnegie was an American citizen or a British subject to the subjec The soldier thought his questioner some member of the regiment in civil clothes, but the absence of the military costume purcluded the necessity of saluting. To each question as to whether he was corperate sergeant, Captain or Lieutenant, M. of Aberdeen University proposed that Mr. Carnegie should be made chancelly of the university to succeed the late Lord the content of the university to succeed the late Lord than the was greater than Thirs replied that he was greater than that.

When the sentry, with mouth full of cheese, said: "Well, then, you must be swimmingly until the student body instead on knowing whether Mr. Carnegie solve me."

Carnegie should be made chancellor of the university to succeed the late Lord Strathcona. The proposal went along swimmingly until the student body instance of the student body instance of the succeeding the succeeding the said on knowing whether Mr. Carnegie was an American citizen or a British and mation concerning estates in chancery in which Americans are supposed to be heirs. One of the most persistent series of requests comes in regard to a mythical es-tate left by William S. Jennings. Three tate left by william S. Jennings. Three to four queries in regard to it are received every week at the embassy.

One of the latest letters from the United States in regard to this suppositious estate says that according to newsduced. But this march of prog-lin ho way affected the Ministry otherior, the very branch of the int which should be first affected changes. The Ministry of the the statute of limitations in order to per-mit the heirs of Jennings to recover the estate from chancery and that Lord Cur-changes. The Ministry of the the statute of limitations in order to per-mit the heirs of Jennings to recover the estate from chancery and that Lord Cur-changes.

Say Denis Papin, Inventor SIBERIA TO LOWER ALIEN OR AMERICAN? of Steam Engine, Was a Chef

'Ligue des Gourmands" to Honor His Memory Wealth of Natural Resources on April 25---Others Deny His Culinary Ability digester, "or engine for softening bones and cooking meat," which are as follows: 'La maniere d'amollir les os et de faire cuire la viande en fort peu de temps et a peu de frais, machine inventee par M Papin, docteur en niedecine." It is a well known fact that Papin studied medicine at the Paris University and M. Nord-mann points out that if the inventor had been a chef he would have mentioned the fact somewhere in this booklet.

To this argument, however, the Carnet d'Epicure replies as follows under the signature of Th. Gringoire, its editor:
"A friend who des'res to remain anonymous but for whose good faith I can youch offers to give £500 [$2,500] to the French Hospital in London if M. Charles Nordmann will be kind enough to further process of the assection that Denis

the base of the ba

Paris, March 5.—A curious controversy has arisen as the result of the announcepublished. We must know at what time

BERLIN. March 14.—The Kaiser is arranging special hospitalities for the Atlantic Pool delegates on the reassembling of the conference here next Tuesday.

HIGH LIVING COST

Soon to Be Sent to Markets of the World.

France, for such a committee would probably have decided to erect another statue. But we sincerely hope that in every city of our country as well as in England and elsewhere, the anniversary of this great man will be fittingly celebrated."

KAISER TO HONOR SHIPPING MEN

Arrangiag Special Hospitalities for Atlantic Pool Delegates.

Special Cable Despatch to The Save Berlin, March 14.—The Kaiser is arranging special hospitalities for the Atlantic Pool delegates are the more than one voyage to the Yenisei in more than one voyage to the Yenisei in the season daught.

To think that if we make full use of action.

"I am too old and too weak to start on a new life, he said to my brother Sergius, some days before his departure. Physically and morally sick, and oppressed by his own thoughts, he went forth without any fixed alm, but with the sole object of reach the mouth of the Oblican the Yenisei through the Kara Sea on a safe passage.

"An important point is not to go into the yenise in the explanation of Tolstoy's self-remove that a ship will be able to make full use of action.

"I think that if we make full use of action.

"I am too old and too weak to start on a new life, he said to my brother Sergius, some days before his departure. Physically and morally sick, and oppressed by his own thoughts, he went forth without any fixed alm, but with the sole object of which we make full use of action.

"I think that if we make full use of action.

"I think that if we make full use of action.

"I am too old and too weak to start on a new life, he said to my brother Sergius, some days before his departure. Physical and the yen's and the yen's action.

"I am too old and too weak to start on a new life, he said to my brother Sergius, some days before his development places at our disposal it is a new life, he said to my brother Sergius, and oppressed by his own thoughts, he went forth without any fixed alm, but with the sole object of action.

"I think that if we make full use of action.

"I the went away to conceal his containers. The Ministry of th to patrol the waters of the part to patrol the waters of the part year and make complete observations, following on those made by Dr. Nansen. Three wireless stations have been established on the coast, and there seems every prospect of a sea route to Siberia being opened and a great addition made to the wealth of the world.

Mr. Lied, the managing director of the company that sent Nansen to make there company that sent Nansen to make there company that sent Nansen to make there towns to make money by flying. The Echo destant is Overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession and that apart from army aviators exceptional experts alone are able to make money by flying. The Echo destant is overcrowded and procession are alone are able to make money by flying.

Latest Efforts of Paris "New Thought" Artists ALBANIA THROTTLED BY THE BLOOD FEUD

Almost Every Male Inhabitant Has an Enemy Who Seeks His Life.

HOUSES ARE FORTRESSES

Murder of a Stranger Compels Friends to Kill Seven of Slayer's Family.

of the newest and most unknown of Deropean Kingdoms, Albania, is drawn by a correspondent of the Times, who has just made a tour in the country. The Times remarks the district of Mat suggests the Khaibar rather than Europe and Prince William's troubles will probably begin when he tries to obtain local revenue as a substitute for the doles of interested Powers.

These are some of the things that clouds over what looks like the times of 100 people, lead self-centred Eiffel Tower. In the left hand cor-There are no villages, only houses dotted ner may be seen the propeller of

There are no villages, only houses dotted at intervals of nearly a mile, high up round wide valleys.

Every one has killed, and all have enemies who seek their blood.

Many men have not left their houses for years, and food has to be brought in to them by their friends. Others, again, have taken to flight after killing their enemy, and unable to sieep in their houses or to till their fields exist by brigandage.

Agriculture to Despised.

There is no dishonor whatever attached to brigandage, and to this day there continues in Albania that primitive society in which the life of the fighter, the free-booter and the shepherd is held in honor, Son of Great Russian Writer while agriculture is despised.

Sometimes a truce is gianted and a man who has been in niding for years will ask MYSTERY SOLVED BY WILL by this enemy for fifteen days respite in which to visit his friends or undertake a journey, but delay in vengeance is held dishonorable, and the man who lets years pass without killing his enemy becomes himself an outcast.

For a stranger it is only possible to pass under the protection of the men of the district who conduct him to "blood friends"; but if he meet the enemies of his friends he is himself counted as an enemy, and to kill him is to avenge an old murder.

On the other hand the murder of a stranger buts the latter's protectors unstranger buts the latter's protectors. Oppressed by Thought of Hav- self an outcast.

PARIS, March 5.—Count E las Tolstoy, a son of the great writer, answers in the Revue de Paris the question, Why did one but seven of the murderer's family. Tolstoy leave Jasnaja Poljana before his | Rich in Natural Resources.

Garier in which he lived his affinity care and seed of the seed of supported his family in the preservation of the copyright. Strakow has himself described how on his second journey to Jasnaja, where he acted as witness of this new will, he felt conscience stricken as he took leave of my mother.

"But the text of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the second will did not be the constitution of the constituti please the advisers and friends of my father, and they induced him to make a third will in June, 1910, in the forest

"'How wretched this whole affair is, and then it is so unnecessary, said my father, as he signed this will. That was his real opinion of it. If a stranger like Strakow felt compunction about the atmosphere of conspiracy which hung round the drawing up of the stranger like.

Special Correspondence to Tun Sun. LONDON, March 4 .- A startling picture

"Solar disks; Form; Simultaneism, to the great constructor Bleriot." by R. Delaunay (French).

A biplane may be found in the clouds over what looks like the c or to till their fields exist by brigandage.

Gigantic German Scheme, Just

Launched, Goes on Rocks

that the new sections such as the German-American and the German-Chinese, be subordinate to them. The sections would not agree to this, and the Germanis particularly deter mined on complete independence.

GIOLITTI STILL SUPREME

Is Expected to Be Called to Miniotry Again Soon.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
ROME. March 14.—It is believed that Premier Giolitti, who has been nicknamed
"the Dictator of Italy" because with only a few short intervals he has been at the head of the Government for more than My twelve years, was under no obligation to twelve years, which The recent election reform laws, which amounted practically to granting universal suffrage, increased the number of Radical Republican and Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies, but the timely removal by the Pope of the order prohibiting Catholies, from youing gave Premier ing Catholics from voting gave Premier caused a great clamor for anti-clericals legislation.

Gioliti tried to pacify the anti-clericals by introducing a bill giving precedence to civil over religious marriages. He aroused the ire of the Catholies by this and the defeat of the bill seemed to be inevitable, so the Premier left it in abeyance.

The new Catholies will probably have to the contract of the start an anti-clerical policy and is conse-quently bound to be short lived. Giolitti, as leader of the opposition and backed by 200 Deputies elected by the Catholic vote, can easily defeat any attempts to enact anti-clerical legislation and his return to power is inevitable at an early date, certainly within a year.

INVENTS FLAMELESS POWDER. Florentine Chemist Says It Can Be Used in Big Guns.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PLORENCE, March 14.—After years of experimenting a young Florentine chemist named Guido Fel claims to have discovered a flameless powder which causes no erosion of the tubes of even the largest cannon. He says it is superior in carrying power to any other powder. In an experiment in the presence of scientists and representatives of the army in a room which had been completely darkened Fel fired a revolver loaded with his powder and there was not the slightest flash.